Madison County Partnership for Children and Families

For Families

Supporting Family Choices: Kith & Kin Care

The Partnership supports group 'play days' for young children and their caregivers (parents, relatives, neighbors) throughout the county. The activities include learning-based play groups and developmentally-geared activities for children, and information for their caregivers. This program is free to families in Madison County. To learn more about this program or to enroll, contact Beth Detwiler: 828.649.5189 or anestinghouse@gmail.com

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library provides a free book every month to children living in Madison County ages birth up to five years old. Participating children receive an age appropriate book each month, mailed directly to the child from the time of registration until age 5.

To enroll please visit our webpage at: www.madisonss.org/parents and click on the Dolly Parton button, or call 828.689.1528

Little Learning Library

The Partnership offers kits of early learning materials to parents and caregivers of children ages 0-5. We have a variety of toys, age-appropriate activities, and books for you to use in your home. Materials can be picked up at our office location in Mars Hill, NC. Contact us today at 828.689.1526 or lynn@madisonss.org to schedule a visit.

Sesame Street in Communities

Sesame Street in Communities is building stronger, smarter, and kinder children by training parents, caregivers, and providers. To access free resources and tips, visit: <https://sesameworkshop.org/>.
